CLASS HISTORY

A tiny rose bush was first planted on August of 1956. This rose bush was the symbol of our class. The growth of this plant began when 46 spurts of energy charged into the roots which caused the plant to grow and leaves to sprout. When the first bud appeared these were the petals: Jodi Anliker, Barbara Smith, Sandee Van Heuvelen, Paula Beckman, Cinky Hopkins, Pam Johnson, John McConnell, Mike Trowbridge, Patty Conn, Jane Irvine, Tom Kammerer, Sue Schoening, Danny Witt, Randy Den Hartog, Randy Jacobs, Jim Lorenzen, Susan Schultz, Bob Wolf, Sue Devine, Donna Japenga, Mary McCauley, Mark Thompson, Debbie Young, Raye Bergen, Harlan Brown, Rhonda Silberstein, Mary Jane Stark, George Clifton, Kris Jones, Donna Pingel, Pam Weemhoff, Pat Norman, Lee Hintz, Cathy La Master, Irene Seivert, Harlan Wensink, Larry Jenness, Linda Longstreet, Ray Shea, Glen Wittrock, Debbie Struve, Christa Miller, Nancy Gipson, Kenny Kern, Gary Miller, and Jimmy Reisdorfer.

First additions to the bud were D. Burnham, Marvin Nelson, Dan Frangenburg, Don Krier, L. Sanders. The petals began to fall. These left us: Randy Den Hartog, Susan Schultz, Cathy La Master, and Jimmy Reisdorfer.

Then the second bud appeared. The new petals were Marvin Jenness, Debbie Johnson, Ruth Rosenboom, and Lorrain Kniese. The petals which left us were Lynn Braband, Paula Beckman, Patricia Conn, George Clifton, Nancy Gipson, Kenny Kern, Patricia Norman, and Harlan Wensink.

We discovered on the third bud five new petals: Denny Manley, Linda Cole, Betsy Riedemann, Kathy Sullivan, and Dudley McDowell. The following petals dropped during this year: Debbie Johnson, Danny Witt, and Debbie Young.

Pam Weemhoff left us on the fourth bud. There were no new petals added to this rose bud.

Finally the fifth rose bud appeared. The new petals were Jane Nagle, Judy Engeltjes, Debbie Johnson, and Glenda Dekok. John McConnell, Mike Trowbridge, and Mary Jane Stark were the first petals to leave that year.

Denny Perry was the only new petal added to our bud as we waited for the next new bud.

On the seventh bud, these two petals, Donna Pingel and Debbie Struve, fell, but a new petal was added and that was Ruth Oldaker.

Then the 8th bud appeared. This petal, Tom Kammerer, left us before we finished blossoming. Two new petals, Greg Payne and Bill Magnuson, were added.

As we progressed from the lesser buds to the greater buds, the ninth bud blossomed, but we lost a petal, Irene Seivert, and then gained a new petal, Ilene Walrath.

The tenth bud appeared. We no longer had Gary Miller as a petal, but we gained new petals, Frieda Dugdale, and Rich Thunhorst.

More new petals appeared on our eleventh bud. They were Linda Sardeson, Dave Sleeper, Ardith Walker, Jan Bonderman, and Scott Heller. Don Krier and Jim Lorenzen withdrew from our blossom.

As we approached the last bud on our rosebush, we lost these petals: Ardith Walker, Linda Sardeson, Kathy Sullivan, and Jan Bonderman.

The original petals, along with additional petals to the class, made the 12 loveliest blossoms on our yellow rose bush.

A DAY IN PHS

5:00 Blondie, alias Lee Hintz, arises to comb golden locks for boys at Sheldon Vocational School.
5:15 Denny Perry arises to milk badly disturbed chicken--boy, it must have been a hard weekend.
5:30 Harlan Brown arises to begin his daily chores--let's see, today it's memorizing the Encyclopedia Britanica.
6:00 Bill Magnuson decides to do his homework--last night there was only time to get Mary's done.
6:15 Dennis Manley's mother calls him to get up.
6:25 Miss Houston finishes her twelfth attempt at shaping her eyebrows.
6:30 Scott Heller, alias Playboy, awakes from pleasant dreams about his latest romance.
6:45 Dennis' mother calls again--still no response.
6:50 Dennis' little brother, Jeffy, pounces on him--Dennis shouts,"UNCLE", and gets up.
7:00 Christa Miller jumps out of bed ready to fight the day.
7:05 Rhonda Silberstein awakens to find she's overslept; it's almost impossible to milk 40 cows and still make it to school on time.
7:30 Mr. Hansen arises to think up today's tortures for the track squad.
7:45 Bus time at the DeKok's--Glenda rushes out, breakfast in hand, books flying behind her.
8:00 Deadline for faculty to arrive at school.
8:10 Dan Frangenberg challenges Lee Hintz to a race to 8:30 classes at Sheldon.
8:15 Students start to congregate outside school doors.
8:19 A sudden downpour of rain drenches students--doors still chained.
8:20 Hall duty teacher unchains doors and admits drenched students.
8:25 Sue Schoening's mother calls Sue in a voice of despair.
8:27 Sue gets up, eats, combs hair, brushes teeth, hunts for ring, gathers books, winds watch, and sprints to school breaking the 220 dash record in the process.
8:29 Mary McCauley and Jane Nagle arrive at school door simultaneously with one whole minute to spare.
8:30 The bell tolls--but for whom?
8:31 Physics class debates with Mr. Verburg about what to discuss--Physics or weekend happenings.
8:35 Mr. Verburg loses again and class breaks out in jubilant conversation.
9:00 Jodi Anliker inquires of Mr. Heller for the fifth time--"Are you sure Russia does not receive foreign aid from the United States?"
9:01 Mr. Heller assures Jodi for the fifth time, that Russia isn't on the long list of countries receiving foreign aid from Uncle Sam.
9:15 Barb Smith assures Raye Bergen for the third time that there most certainly is a bookkeeping assignment for today.
9:17 Raye works on assignment between savage glances from Mr. Hansen.
9:20 Sandee Van Heuvelen and Donna Japenga are conversing fluently toward the end of World Affairs class.
9:21 Mr. Heller tells girls he didn't recall giving anyone permission to speak.
9:22 Sandee replies, "Sure you did".
9:23 Mr. Heller threatens girls with semester test.
9:24 Sandee and Donna think it over and decide to shut up for the last five minutes of class.
9:30 The bell tolls--but for whom?
9:35 Miss Houston begins daily lecture informing 12th grade English class that they are now seniors and should start acting as such.
9:45 Miss Houston compliments Glen Wittrock on his combat boots.
10:00 Reed Bornholdt adds to his list of famous quotes by Miss Houston. "Reed, you misconstrued my misinterpretation again."
10:20 Miss Houston passes out a 15 page test to be done within the last 10 minutes.
10:30 The bell tolls--but for whom?
10:45 Mr. Verburg tells Dudley McDowell to diagram the shortest distance between two points.
10:46 Dudley diagrams the shortest distance between his house and a certain Hollander maiden's house.
11:00 Donna Japenga and Frieda Dugdale counsel Miss Heutinck on the subject of love and marriage.
11:15 Betsy Riedemann and Linda Cole retire to the corner of the art room and discuss Sanborn and Sutherland boys.
11:30 The bell tolls--but for whom?
11:35 Ilene Walrath in an attempt to be seated in Girls' Chorus, finds the floor the destination of her trip.
11:55 Girls' Chorus, dying of hunger pains, is forced to sing some song for the 23rd time.
12:00 The bell tolls--but for whom? Famished students, stupid.
12:05 Mrs. Weseman gives up in despair on Girls' Chorus--

12:05½ Barb Smith barrels through the music room door to lead the Metrecal for lunch bunch to the locker room.
12:20 Larry Jenness is seen roaming the halls with a certain sophomore girl.
12:35 The bell tolls--but for whom?
12:45 Miss Houston begins daily lecture to afternoon senior English class, informing them that they are also seniors, and should start acting as such.
1:00 Jane Irvine is caught day dreaming about her favorite WORM.
1:25 Linda Longstreet assures Scott Heller for the 32nd time this hour that she is not taking Math IV and wishes he would not bother her so much in study hall.
1:35 The bell tolls--but for whom?
1:36 All seniors are scampering to either Captain Johnson's or Coach Heller's rooms.
1:50 Marv Nelson begins lengthy dissertation on the law of dimishing returns.
2:10 Mr. Johnson hears weird sounds from back of room.
2:11 Dave Sleeper is caught sleeping soundly but not soundless.
2:20 Sue Devine is sitting in government class dreaming about the Everly Cattlefeeders.
2:35 The bell tolls--but for whom?
2:50 Left-right, left-right--Colonel Klink is heard marching the phys. ed girls to lunch room.
3:00 Ray Shea hits the floor while attempting to perform a triple backward flip on the tramp-oline.
3:15 In study hall, Greg Payne speaks to Bob Wolf to borrow a "Time" magazine---or is it "Playboy"?
3:20 Judy Engeltjes is hit on the foot with a golf ball and cracks her wooden shoe.
3:35 The bell tolls--but for whom? The prisoners of P.H.S.
4:00 Ruth Oldaker sits down to practice her bass clarinet--for a couple of minutes.
4:02 Ruth turns purple from exhaustion.
4:30 Dick Thunhorst, out of gas, coasts into the Standard Oil Station, puts in a half cup of Standard gas to get him to the Farm Service tanks.
7:30 Cindy Hopkins is frantically looking for her little black book--who does she have a date with tonight!
8:00 Kris Jones is seen flying through town in her blue falcon. Wonder what she's up to now!
10:15 Randy Jacobs takes off for Sutherland for weekend excursion.
2:00 Because of the rain, all seniors are out with flashlights looking for the worm.
2:15 Most seniors are now in bed enjoying technicolor dreams of soon approaching graduation. So ends another hectic day at P.H.S.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

"We, the esteemed Senior Class of 1968, of the city of Primghar, County of O'Brien, and the State of Iowa, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our first and last will and testament."

FRIEDA DUGDALE wills her trips to Paullina to BRAD BERN and her curly hair styles to GLORIA LARSEN.

MARY, MCCAULEY wills her beaming blush to SUE ROLD and her height to MR. HANSEN.

CINDY HOPKINS wills her many loves to ED ARONSON and her flirting ways to JANE JOHANNSEN.

To the faculty of Primghar High School, we leave the Juniors, to treat and to dispose of as you see fit.

COMMENCEMENT SNAPS

CLASS PROPHESY

We've consulted with the local mystic and this is what she told us:

BOB WOLF is a hermit in the North Woods who has to live off nuts and berries--he doesn't have much luck at fishing.

LEE HINTZ, for the first time since graduation from P.H.S., has cut his hair and sold it as a wig to DENNY PERRY, but Denny is not saying anything. We do think blondes have more fun--right, JANE?

RHONDA SILBERSTEIN, local fashion designer, finds white socks appealing. Boys do too!

DAVE SLEEPER is leading the affirmative in a nation-wide debate with Amy Vanderbilt----Should purple socks and sandals be worn for formal occasions?

BARB SMITH is playing an organ Bosinova at the Copa Cabana.

DAN FRANGENBERG is coming down the street in his fire-red supersonic G.T., Garbage Truck.

HARLAN BROWN has just written a 100,000 word informative thesis about "The Absolute Value of Nothing".

KRIS JONES, after years of experience at P.H.S., has won the Indianopolis 500 with LINDA COLE as pitman.

DICK THUNHORST has finally talked his dad into possibly buying a 1936 Ford.

SUE SCHOENING is head of Schoening Plumbing Incorporated Union.

JUDY ENGELTJES is presently occupying the position of Hollander minister preaching the gospel of Dutch equality.

GLENDA DEKOK is aiding the ailing fronts-linesmen in Vietnam.

FRIEDA DUGDALE is hairstylist at Oleg Cassini's in New York.

JANE IRVINE is president of the world's only Worm Manufacturing Company.

JANE NAGLE is racing her horses in the Santa Anita. The race is over, but she's still going strong.

BILL MAGNUSON and MARY McCAULEY opened a drive-in with Bill hopping and Mary cooking.

SANDEE VAN HEUVELEN is singing mezza soprano in the Metropolitan.

JODI ANLIKER finally broke the news to her parents. "Guess who's coming to dinner?"

GLEN WITTROCK, after a hard day in the field, has his wife bring him his slippers---authentic combat boots.

BETSY RIEDEMANN is curator for her own art museum.

RANDY JACOBS as Commander in Chief is making beatle boots a part of the official attire of the French Foreign Legion.

DONNA JAPENGA---Now even her hairdresser doesn't know for sure!

DUDLEY McDOWELL has top billing in "Gone With the Wind" with Carol Cleveringa as co-star.

CHRISTA MILLER, light as a feather, has gone with the wind.

RAYMOND SHEA and his fourteen daughters are running a car repair in Alcappoco.

RUTH OLDAKER is world famous for her before and after pictures.

MARV NELSON is still taking all corners on four wheels---he finally put training wheels on his honda.

SCOTT HELLER is a world famous pole vaulter, he still is using crutches.

GREG PAYNE is unfortunately at the bottom of the sea. He joined the Navy, but his ship sank and his life preserver just wouldn't hold him up.

SUE DEVINE is raising hybrid corn for the Cattlefeeders.

REED BORNHOLDT is on a jet flight to Moms Mableys as a Playboy photographer. He often gets stuck with the odd jobs.

LINDA LONGSTREET is an eminent antomoligist on Grubs.

RAYE BERGEN says, "Sock it unto me." Forget it baby---sock it unto you.

DENNIS MANLEY, after ten years of "yellow streaking", is still in one piece. However, he has been in the Navy for nine and one half years.

ILENE WALRATH finds nursing quite enjoyable when it involves the social life.

CINDY HOPKINS started the Bunny Club. Hop, hop, hop, along with Hopkins.

This year's sponsors for the junior class are Mrs. Klink, Mrs. Ewoldt, Mrs. Steffens, Miss Heutinck, Mrs. Weseman, Mr. Davis and Mr. Verberg. Our class officers were Rick Langholtz for President; Janet Wolf for Vice-President; and Beverly Kurth for Secretary-Treasure. The Student Council representatives this year were Rick Langholtz and Susan Rold. We had one girl to represent the juniors in promoting school spirit as a cheerleader and this was Rosanne Shea.

Some of the activities that we participated in are Homecoming which was on the evening after a football game in the local gym on October 13. The name of the theme was "Swinging Safari". A local band named Billy Redman's Band provided the entertainment at the dance. Rosanne Shea was chosen by our class to be Queen Attendant.

We also participated in the Prom festivities. A date that will be remembered by one and all our junior year. Working on the gym during the day and enjoying the outcome in the evening with a banquet and a dance following. Rick Langholtz presided as Master of Ceremonies for the evening and Eddies Band furnished the music for the dance. The theme of the Prom was Romance in Venice. The banquet was held in the Methodist Church. On May 6, a rainy evening enjoyed by all, it was the night of the junior class picnic. Miss Houston was the sponsor for this event.

During the course of our second 180 days in high school, we accepted many challenges, faced problems, and set goals. Our time and effort spent in building a float to the theme "Our Treasure's a Victory" was rewarded by winning first place.

The Sophomore Class was represented in the Student Council by Myrna Rosenboom and Steve Jacobs.

This year was highlighted by various activities which were help seen through by our sponsors Mr. Hansen, Mr. Hoel, and Mr. Yeager. We leave them our thanks, appreciation, and no doubt a few gray hairs. We also hope our remaining years in PHS are as rewarding as this past year.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Pres.--Dennis Strand
Vice Pres.--Bob McCauley
Sec.--Mark Kurth

Last fall we as freshmen entered high school, curious and anxious about the future. Although there were doubts in our minds of how we were going to make the grade, we did it and most successfully at that. Now that our first year of high school is past, and we look back we realize how much hard work but fun it has been.

Our first big project was constructing the freshman float for homecoming. The theme, "Flying to Victory", brought us second place in competition.

We freshman sponsored one sock-hop this year and also helped to support an overseas child jointly with the rest of P.H.S.

Now that we are free from the tag "Freshman", we, the class of 1971, intend to improve our habits and strive for a better future.

INTERNATIONAL EVENTS

1. British hippies claim that their aim is different from that of American hippies. . . they don't want to "drop out" of society, but to stay in and change it.

2. French President Charles DeGaulle stirred up a lot of controversy during 1967—here he explains why he feels Britain should not be a Common Market member.

3. Soldiers of the U.S. 4th Infantry Division rest atop Hill 1338 following a fierce battle with the North Vietnamese for the hill in the Dak To area.

4. Israeli soldiers fly their flag from a mosque in the Sinai desert captured by the Israelis during the short-lived Arab-Israeli war in June of 1967.

5. Waving red-colored booklets of Mao's quotations, pro-communist Chinese swarm in front of the Governor's House during May demonstrations in Hong Kong.

6. Mrs. Svetlana Alliluyeva, daughter of the late Soviet dictator Joseph Stalin, was a bit surprised that her defection created so much stir in the U. S.

7. In June, Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin came to the United States to address the UN about the Arab-Israeli war and later talked with President Johnson.

8. An Army vehicle bears the casket of former West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer from Cologne Cathedral, April 25, following a Requiem Mass.

9. Suits came back into fashion during 1967. This one was designed by Lito Manalang for a young fashion house, the year-old British Moderns of New York.

10. This wide angle view of the moon's hidden side was taken on August 6, 1967 and transmitted back to the Jet Propulsion Lab in Pasadena, California.

11. Heavy monsoon rains turned most of South Vietnam into a quagmire during the summer of 1967. Here, U.S. marines prepare to board a Chinook helicopter.

12. President Johnson, shown here in Vietnam, staunchly defended the nation's participation in the Vietnam war despite widespread protests and demonstrations.
